

FEBRUARY HALF TERM ACTIVITIES

1. WAKEHURST

Travel back in time for a Jurassic journey around Wakehurst in Haywards Heath - a beautiful National Trust day out.

2. NONSUCH PARK

Explore Nonsuch Park on a bright sunny day, plenty of green space to enjoy, a playground and a cafe for a snack.

3. TREASURE TRAILS

Treasure trails are a great way to explore an area. Our closest one is Epsom. For a small cost, download a map and treasure hunt with clues to solve. Ideal for children aged 8+

4. MICROSOFT EXPERIENCE CENTRE

Based in Oxford Circus, London, a free gaming experience including an xbox gaming lounge. A great one to escape the crowds on a rainy day in town!

5. LITTLE STREET

Recently opened in Wallington, a role play centre designed for under 7's. Sessions available to book online for a small cost.

6. KIDS EAT FREE

Lots of local restaurants are offering free kids meals during half term. Including Burger King, Dobbies Garden Centre and Morrisons.

7. THROWLEY YARD CINEMA

An independent cinema in Sutton, somewhere a bit different to take the family for a movie day!

8. MORDEN HALL PARK

In the stabling exhibition space for birds and brushes story and craft sessions, listening to bird-themed stories, designing and creating a drawstring bag and making a fat ball to take home.
