

Wood Field Writing Curriculum

Wood Field Writing Overview

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
EYFS
Year 1	Sentence Writing, wanted poster, sequencing events of a story, setting description, adjective focus, riddles, postcard		Non-chronological report, fact file, diary entry, instructions, character description, retelling of a story, poetry.		Recount, instructions, letter, retelling of a story, diary, book review, poetry, letter
Year 2	 Fact file Narrative Letter Poem	 News report Instructions Recount Poster  Diary	 Narrative Setting description Character description Fact file	 Instructions Newspaper Discussion Poetry	 Diary Setting description Narrative Recount of trip	 Narrative Postcard Poetry

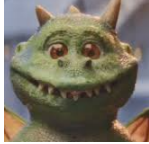

Wood Field Writing Curriculum

Year 3	 Wanted poster. Write a diary entry from Hogarth's perspective (informal) Poetry Newspaper report Write an apology letter.	 To write a biography To write a persuasive letter. To write a description Poetry	 To write an advert To write a leaflet To write instruction To write a setting description. To write a diary Instructions- Easter Egg hunt	 Playscript Comic strip Poetry- ode	 Non-chronological Report. A recount about trip to British Museum To write an argument	 To write a myth To write a fairy-tale Setting description
Year 4	 Narrative Non-chronological report Letter Character description	 Diary Newspaper Instructions-recipe Kenning poem	 Character description Balanced argument Letter of application	 Limerick Persuasive speech Biography Narrative	 Descriptive writing Non-chronological report Fact file	 Recount Setting description Narrative

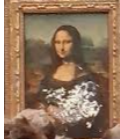

Wood Field Writing Curriculum

					Letter of application
Year 5	 Character description Narrative  Dreadful Menace film clip. Poetry	 Persuasive letter Instructions Missing poster  Excitable Edgar (John Lewis Christmas Advert) Diary	 Newspaper Memoir  The Piano video Recount	 Non-chronological report Character description Poetry Biography: Dr Barnardo Diary	 Setting description Narrative Playscript  Little Freak Persuasive letter	 Titanium  Police report Narrative Persuasion
	 Biography (Based on life of Salvador Dali)	 Diary entry (Based on visit from Al Sylvester)	 Diary entry (Anne Frank's Diary)	 Narrative writing (setting description on Hobbiton)	Non-chronological report Narrative	REVISION

Wood Field Writing Curriculum

	Narrative (Based on literacy shed video)	Non-chronological report (Based on Titanic National geographic video)	Persuasive letter using BBC archive footage of evacuees. (Children write in role as Churchill)	Newspaper- Mona Lisa attack
	Emotions poem
	 Balanced argument (Based on graffiti being vandalism or art?)	Newspaper (Based on Titanic National geographic video)	Narrative (based on Literacy shed video 'Beyond the Lines')

Greenshaw Purposes of Writing and Genre

Non-fiction - Depending on the context, genres can belong to more than one/different purpose types

To explain		To inform		To argue
Instruction	Explanation	Reports	Recounts	Persuasion	Discussion
- Rules - Recipes - Directions - Experiments - Survival guides - Instruction manuals	- Processes or cycles - Explanations linked to work in other subject areas	- Non-chronological reports - Film reviews - Book reviews - Sports reviews - Weather reports - News reports	- Postcards - Thank you letters - Recounts based on real experiences e.g. trips, experience days - Diaries in role - Letters in role	- Invitations - Letters in role - Wanted posters - Posters to advertise - Letters for real purposes - Radio, television,	- Debates (oral) - Written balanced arguments

Wood Field Writing Curriculum

		• News broadcasts • Police reports • Information texts	• Blogs • Emails • Eyewitness reports • Biographies • Autobiographies	magazine or hoarding adverts • Leaflets • Travel brochures • Written arguments
--	--	--	---	---	--

Greenshaw Purposes of Writing and Genre

Fiction

To entertain
Poetry	Narrative
Acrostic /Shape	Story openers
Free verse	Settings descriptions
Narrative	Character descriptions
Riddles/Kennings	Adventure stories
Structured syllables	Warning tales
	Science fiction/ fantasy
	Narratives set in the past
	Myths and legends